We are a personal care home, not a nursing home.

If a patient needs skilled nursing — a ventilator, IV care, a total mechanical lift, wound care only a nurse can do — we will tell you plainly and help you find the right place. Saying so is part of the job. Page 2 has the full list.

REVIEWS

Clinical Fit

Who we're right for, and who we're not. Saying so is part of the job.

The Joy Senior Living of Loganville
GA Personal Care Home · 24 suites

A good fit

Send these patients. We can take them.

- ADL assistance — bathing, dressing, grooming, toileting; transfers with one-person assist.
- Medication management — daily administration by trained staff.
- Memory impairment, including wandering and sundowning risk.
- Fall risk needing supervision and a small, level, single-story setting.
- Failure to thrive at home — needs structure, meals, and people around.
- Post-hospitalization recovery that isn't safe to do alone — respite stay, no long-term commitment.
- Caregiver burnout — the family at home is out of runway.

NOT appropriate

We'll say so fast, so you can keep working the list.

- ✗ Skilled nursing needs — ventilators, IV therapy, wound vacs, feeding tubes.
- ✗ Total mechanical lifts and residents who cannot bear weight at all. (Two-person assist itself we do handle, at our Joy Enhanced and Joyful Pathways levels.)
- ✗ Active psychiatric crisis, or behaviors that are unsafe in a small-home setting with other residents close by.
- ✗ Care needs beyond Georgia personal care home licensure. If the state says it's skilled, it's skilled.

call or text

To start an assessment, have ready

- ☐ Current level of care & ADL status
- ☐ Medication list
- ☐ Diagnoses
- ☐ Ambulatory / transfer status (one- or two-person)
- ☐ Behaviors — exit-seeking, aggression, sundowning
- ☐ Funding source
- ☐ Discharge timeline
- ☐ Family contact — name & number

Required before move-in

- ☐ Physician's report / GA Form
- ☐ TB screening
- ☐ Signed medication orders
- ☐ Discharge summary / face sheet

We'll tell you which of these we can chase ourselves. Missing paperwork is rarely what holds up a discharge here.

Typical timeline

STEP 1

Call

Describe the patient. ten minutes.

STEP 2

Assessment

Same day where possible. Bedside available.

STEP 3

Decision

Yes or no within hours, not days.

STEP 4

hello@joyseniorcare.com

After the move-in, you still hear from us. Mellissa calls you at day 7 with how the resident is settling, and says so early if it isn't working — while there's still time to re-place, not from the ER. Nights and weekends:

Family not ready to commit?

A respite stay — a few days to a few weeks, full care — solves the discharge without forcing the decision. Families often convert to long-term on their own timeline.
